From the Rector's Desk

I am offering Advent Reflections for your reading and meditations this Advent. There are four devotions and they are offered by bishops from the Anglican Church of Canada and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, the Episcopal (Anglican) church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. As you know, the Anglican Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church are in full communion with each other.

The third devotion (Third Sunday of Advent) is written by Susan Johnson. She is the National Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada. The last devotion in the series (Advent 4) is written by Fred Hiltz, Anglican Primate of Canada. I commend these devotions to you.

Prayer – “God of our present age, stir up in us a longing for justice with compassion and prepare us for the in-breaking reign of your love and peace. Amen.”

In the Gospel reading we hear John the Baptist say, “I am the voice crying in the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord.”

The passage from Isaiah captures what that voice in the wilderness is crying for:

- to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn.

These words from Isaiah are what Jesus reads aloud in the synagogue in Nazareth at the beginning of his ministry, going on to announce, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

These readings underscore for me our need to offer prophetic voices crying in the wilderness – in the town squares, in the halls of government, in the courts of law – on behalf of all those who are marginalized and oppressed and in need of justice.

Is it just me, or do you also feel like the list of those in need of justice keeps getting longer and longer?

Our present age includes wars in Gaza, Ukraine, Syria, South Sudan, Nigeria, Central African Republic and elsewhere; the greatest number of refugees and internally displaced persons in the history of our planet; racial tensions made vivid by the death of Michael Brown and the subsequent and sometimes violent demonstrations in Ferguson, Missouri; the growing number of missing and murdered indigenous women in Canada; hunger and poverty around our world and in our own countries; homelessness; domestic violence; human trafficking; more.

The list is long.

Yet we are called to be like John the Baptist, crying out and working for justice, following the example of Jesus. We do this as churches, individually and cooperatively.

This past September, the leaders of the Anglican Church of Canada, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada and the Episcopal Church issued a joint pastoral letter on climate change. This was an important national and international effort. But we are called to cry out and work for justice individually and in our local context as well.

We work for justice through our heartfelt prayers and our offerings to support the work of the wider church. We work for justice as we petition our elected leaders, letting them know of our concerns. We work for justice as we volunteer in local ministries whether through our churches or through such community agencies as food banks, out-of-the-cold programs, homeless shelters and more. We work for justice when we take to the streets in silent vigil or loud, non-violent protest.

How is this true for you? How are you crying out for and working for justice? What more could you, your congregation, your community, your church be doing?

MILESTONES

If anyone knows of someone in the Parish celebrating a milestone in their lives, please contact the Church Office.

A Stewardship Thought for the Week

With Christmas coming, sometimes we feel we should warn, “Now, don’t give God’s part away to people on the Christmas list.” Honestly, few of us have any intention of doing that. In fact, many happily reach new levels of sharing in the business of Christ’s kingdom because of the season’s sense of rejoicing and hope.

May your giving today mean something special to you.

Church Chuckle

The Sunday School teacher was describing how Lot’s wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt, when little Jason interrupted, “My mummy looked back once, while she was driving.” He announced triumphantly, “and she turned into a telephone pole!”

Noteworthy Events

Diocesan Resource Centre, opened Saturdays from Nov. 1st – Dec. 20th for the Christmas Season.

Notices (Cont’d)

The ACM of our parish will be providing an outside Christmas Tree complete with BLUE LIGHTS. Donations in memory of loved ones are invited and as the donations are received, the blue lights will be replaced with WHITE LIGHTS in memory of the particular loved one. BY CHRISTMAS EVE, THE TREE SHOULD HAVE ONLY WHITE LIGHTS.

We have a request to assist a family during the Christmas Season. We have some items but we need your help. This is a single-parent family with a 17 year old girl and an infant girl. Please place items in the silver covered box in the foyer. Monetary donations can be made through the church office or regular offerings (please mark the envelope accordingly and provide your church envelope number). Thank you.

You can pick up your 2015 church envelopes as you leave the church this morning. They are in the foyer.

Daily Morning Prayer (Mon thru Friday) is being held at 10:00am at the church. Anyone who would like to share in this service is welcome to come along.

Cards & Darts Fellowship: The Cards & Darts Fellowship will be held on the 4th Wednesday of each month, at 8:00pm, but not in December. The next scheduled date is January 28th.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Reader 1: We light the third candle of Advent. (With the first two candles burning, a family member lights the third candle.)

Reader 2: We look to John, the one you sent, to point us to your light. The Light will come into our world and enlighten everyone.

Reader 1: God sent John the Baptizer to prepare the people for the coming of Jesus Christ, the true Light of the World. John called the people to repent of their sins and to live faithfully. He baptized with a cleansing water and proclaimed the new life that Christ, the one who would follow him, would bring. This Advent, we ask for God’s mercy and a joyful new beginning.

People: Merciful God, we give thanks that you send messengers like John to call us to a greater faith. We ask that in these days we prepare for you in prayer and in acts of holy compassion. Forgive us and lead us to your light. Amen.

People Sing: Shine on us, O God of justice;
Guide our path through gloom of night;
Bear within us Wisdom's glory;
Come to us, O Christ the Light.
